

AMERICANS DRIVE GERMANS OUT OF ST. MIHIEL SALIENT; SECRETARY OF WAR BAKER WITNESSES OPENING OF FIGHT

TOTAL OF 2,006 REGISTRANTS IN CITY ARE LISTED

Local Board For District No. 2 Has Total of 3,850;
No. 5, 2,918.

REPORTS ARE NOW ALL IN

Every Registration Precinct of Both Local Boards Makes Report; Total In Fayette County is Expected to Go Over the Estimated 25,000 Mark.

Registration in Connellsville and Fayette county was yesterday up to the estimates previously made and from early reports it seems that even more than 25,000 were enrolled in the county. In Connellsville registrants in all the wards were kept busy throughout the day and last night.
The first reports were received here by Local Board No. 2 from the city wards and outlying districts were slower coming in.

The registration in Connellsville was 2,006. Local Board No. 2 was kept busy this morning compiling the returns as they came in, preparing a list to be sent to Harrisburg. In District No. 5 R. S. Matthews went out in the mountain districts last night and collected the returns in Wharton townships Nos. 1 and 2; Henry Clay townships Nos. 1 and 2; Markleysburg, Ohio, and Stewart township.
Local Board No. 2 gave out the complete report shortly before noon today showing a total of 3,850 men, but Local Board No. 5 had more difficulty in compiling the registration on account of the scattered territory, and a little later reported a total of 2,918.

In Connellsville, the third ward led in the number of registrants, there being 428. The second ward ranked next with 346. The first, fourth, fifth and seventh were in the two hundred class, having 284, 285, 249 and 218 respectively. The sixth ward enrolled 197.

Reports from points in District No.
2 are as follows: Everson, 256; Lower Tyrone township, No. 1, 139; Lower Tyrone township, No. 2, 89; Dawson, 151; South Connellsville, 324; skin township, No. 2, 107; Upper Tyrone township, No. 1, 217; Upper Tyrone township, No. 2, 117.

POSTPONED RACES

AT DAWSON TRACKS BEING RUN TODAY

Clear Weather Makes It Possible to Carry Out Big Program of Yesterday.

The races of the Fayette County Fair being held at the Dawson driving park, which were postponed yesterday on account of the rain, attracted large crowds today. The same program which would have been carried out yesterday, including the best races of the entire fair week, were staged today. The regular program for today is being included.

The tracks dried up well during the morning, and the clear weather attracted many hundreds from all parts of the county. The races were the main attraction at the fair today, the buildings where livestock are on exhibition having been well inspected yesterday by a large crowd which kept under cover, out of the rain.

Although a record breaking crowd was expected at the park yesterday had it not rained, the attendance fell off a little today on account of the postponement. Four races all for good purses are scheduled for this afternoon and some fast time is expected.

HARRY EDMONDS NOW SERGEANT MAJOR OF A 110TH BATTALION

Local Boy Writes That 28th Division Has Made a Name for Itself.

In a letter to his father, T. H. Edmonds of East Francis avenue, Sergeant Harry Edmonds of Company D, 110th Regiment, writes that at the present he is with the First Battalion of the regiment acting as battalion sergeant major. The letter states:

"As I have little time to spare will write and let you know that I am still existing. I might say that I am feeling very good. We are having a very exciting time and have been for some little time back. Our boys are doing well in the drive and I hope this success continues. Although we have gained a good bit, we have lost several good boys, some of which you have no doubt read about in the papers by this time. Our division sure has made a name for itself. This I know to be correct as I am right where the business is going on.

"I am at the present with the First Battalion of our regiment acting as battalion sergeant major. This position requires a good bit of time and there is lots of work in it. One of our sergeants has been injured and the other was killed. I was clerk to the one that was killed and believe me I sure have been lost oversight. I commenced to realize that no job in the army is safe. We have gone through some pretty stiff work and have gained good results.

"I received the pictures which mother sent and they sure did make me feel homesick for a while. I look at them every once in a while and wish that I was back. I want to say that I received your box O. K. and everything in it was fine. Of course, it was a little damp but not enough to hurt what was in it. I appreciated all of its contents. Tell mother that letters coming from the States are not censored, but I warn you all not to write anything which would be of interest to the enemy if the letters got into their possession. You know what would be advisable to write about, so will let it up to you people.

Tell mother that I also received the two bundles of papers which she forwarded me. I do not think I mis-eared a thing that was in them. You might know what kind of a time I had reading them. Every time I got the opportunity I picked one of them up until I had read them all. Well I will have to close and get back to work. I want you to write and tell me what you all done on the Fourth of July."

SCOTSDALE SOLDIERS HELPING CHASE HUNS

Writing from the fighting front in France to a friend in Scottdale, Charles W. Cunningham, also of that place, says:

"Our regiment has been in action for about a month now and I would like to give you the details, but perhaps it would not pass the censor. I will say, however, that the Boches were on a drive to Paris but they ran up against something that convinced them that they were on the wrong road. I had the privilege of guarding quite a bunch of prisoners and some of them had a regular schedule of their drive to Paris, even down to towns they would drive at along the way. They were questioned at headquarters and asked what they thought of the Yanks; one big Boche made the remark that they were fighting (censored) not a very nice name, I must admit, but a pretty good reputation especially in this game. Have been on the go for some time, nearly run to death to keep up with the Kaiser. They were in some great hurry by the ammunition and supplies they left behind."

"Our boys had some write-up in the French papers, although our regiment number was not used, but we knew who they were handing it to. The French General congratulated our regiment personally. I don't know if this will get past the censor or not, but if he is a real fellow he may O. K.
it. Our band leader, Don Kimmell, has been commissioned a lieutenant and the band is to be increased to 50 men at once. We will have some parade in Scottdale when the boys come marching home. I have already taken it upon myself and engaged the band for a big parade and a general good time as soon as the stars and stripes are waving in Germany and the natives are whistling 'Yankee Doodle.' Get ready Jim."

"BILL" SHERMAN ON WAY TO HIGH RANK—NOW CORPORAL

"Bill" Sherman has taken his second step toward attaining high rank before the war is over. He has been promoted to corporal, an honor which he bears with becoming modesty and dignity, which he did not lack even when a high private in the rear rank

GERMAN WAR OFFICE STATEMENT ANNOUNCES EVACUATION OF SECTOR

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, via London, Sept. 13.—The official statement reporting military operations on the western front issued today by the German general staff says:—

"During the night the evacuation of the St. Mihiel salient which was liable to encirclement and which has been under consideration for some years was completed without interference.

"In anticipation of the attack of the French and Americans on the St. Mihiel salient we began evacuating this salient a few days ago."

LONDON, Sept. 13.—1 P. M.—General Pershing's forces in their attack on the southern side of the St. Mihiel salient have advanced for a distance of eight miles. The assault was made on a front of 14 miles. The Americans this morning were making rapid progress in the continuation of their drive.

The Americans are reported to have captured Vigneulles, seven and a half miles north of Xivray, through which the former lines ran. General Pershing's troops also are said to have captured Beney, Heudicourt and Bois de Thiaucourt.

If these places really have been captured the neck of the St. Mihiel salient has been narrowed to less than six miles and if the two German divisions reported last night to be in the salient still are there it is decidedly improbable that they will be able to get away.

General Pershing's troops so far have captured 9,500 prisoners and have taken 60 German guns.

On the west side of the St. Mihiel salient where the country is much more difficult and where the German resistance has been more determined, the Americans have made an advance of three miles on a 12 mile front.

ST. MIHIEL OFFENSIVE ALL-AMERICAN.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN LORRAINE, Sept. 13.—The Allied offensive on the western front for the first time is dominantly American, the French co-operating, and in a military sense it is regarded as a continuing phase of the battle which began early last summer.

Newton D. Baker, the American Secretary of War, with several other notables, witnessed the beginning of the battle from the vantage point of a French point close behind the middle of the line. It was precisely 1 o'clock on a rainy, moonless night when a single flash of flame shot across the sky.
It was followed by other flashes which gradually merged into a sheet of white light on the horizon. Gradually there began to roll from this flamelit area a mighty thunder, amidst which could be distinguished now and then the crack and boom of German returned shells bursting.

The front over which the attack was made was so extended that the brilliant band of vivid light soon stretched from far eastward to westward, lighting up the clouds. Soon there began to arise star shells, signal rockets and flares, thrown by the enemy to betray the Americans should they leave their trenches suddenly to begin an infantry attack.

THE AFTER SUPPER HOUR QUIET HOUR IN FRANCE AS WITH FOLKS AT HOME

Says Oliver Moser Writing 'Nenth the Candle Light in a Wine Cellar Behind the Lines.

In the village wine cellar 'neath the candle light,
And my thoughts come back to you—describe both the whereabouts and the mood of Oliver P. Moser, member of the 110th Regiment Medical Detachment when writing, under date of August 16 to his sister and father, Mrs. Josephine M. Williams and O.
P. Moser, of West Cedar avenue.

"This," he says, "is Longfellow's hour—this is the quiet hour in France —this is my hour—the hour of shadows and darkness—the romance hour.
And my thoughts come back to you!
Remember the hour after supper we used to spend? Remember the timely arguments—the little laughs and frills? Ah, yes—distinctly I remember. And now I spend more of those good times soon, maybe in 1919.

"At present I am billeted in a house in a small town close to the lines.
Sometimes 'Jerry' throws a few into our town and sometimes he comes over at night, but outside of that all is quiet. But when he comes over it's 'back' where you are—the flat on the ground. Then after he has dropped, get up and proceed, but don't think you are back in Mill Run.

"The boys are now reading accounts of our drive in July. Oh yes, I remember. I was in it about two weeks later, but now all is quiet. I hope Jerry remains civil for a while.

"Underneath this house is a wine cellar where we go for protection. And here is where I am now. There are 12 beds in the cellar and two candles, a lot of rats and a musty odor. In our dressing room we have a very elegant writing table, chairs and a sofa. We have everything imaginable at our disposal—slippers, tin pitchers, hat racks, mirrors and pictures.

"Oh, oh, Delphine! we have water right at our hands and lots of garden truck Jimmie (Darr) and myself have cucumbers for supper. For our mess we have lots of good stuff and we get cigars and chocolate from the Y. M. C. A. We have lots of clothing, too. So don't worry, don't worry. All of our gang is well. Jimmie is still 'Jim.' You are a better man than I am. Dugha Din. Everyone plays the game. We are over here and shall stay until Jerry is eradicated."

CHARLES COOPER GETS BULLET IN COAT TAIL

Private Charles H. Cooper, with the 51st Company, U. S. M. C. 2nd Battalion, 5th Regiment in France, writing to his uncle, Charles W. McKee, of this city, tells of being in an engagement with the Huns. The letter written on July 28 follows:

"Dear Aunt and Uncle:—Received your very welcome letters about two weeks ago and certainly was glad to hear from you. I suppose you have seen in the paper what we are doing over here.

"This unit has made a good showing and has had congratulations from the highest officers. It makes me feel proud to be in an organization of that kind. We have seen about two months of active service, most all open warfare. I have been very lucky.
I have had men fall on my right and left but only had one bullet to pierce my coat tail. I tell you that will make the hair stand up on your dome, ha! ha! I could write a book full of it if I was allowed but I cannot do it.

"I have been getting mail from the home folks right along, also from brother Ed. You asked me in your letter if there was anything I wanted.
There is nothing unless it is to take me back home and I know you cannot do that. I can get all kinds of cake at the Y. M. C. A."

SERGEANT DOUGLAS OF 110TH RECOVERING FROM WOUND

Writing from a base hospital in France to his father, E. R. Douglas of Vanderhill, Sergeant M. P. Douglas of Company L, 110th Infantry, states that he is recovering from a slight wound in his left arm but expects to be back with his company within a few days "to give the Hun another taste of cold steel."

"We have been showing him what the Yanks can do," Sergeant Douglas says. "I suppose you have seen from the papers that we are doing good work. The German are about to quit, by the way, the prisoners talk one told us the other day, after we had given him a good feed, that if the German soldiers knew they would be fed like he had been, they would all come over and give themselves up. From the way he spoke the Germans don't seem to have much to eat. I hope they give up soon."

Confidence Soldier Gassed.

tached to the American Engineering forces in France, is in the BALTIMORE & OHIO MAY BUY MACCABEE BUILDING FOR "Y"

Although Deal Has Not Yet Been Closed It Is Understood to Be Favored.

FLOOR PLANS ARE TAKEN

Baltimore Officials Come Here to Look Over Property; Suitable for Y. M.
C. A. Purposes, Once Having Been Used as the Local Institution.

Plans are under way here for a railroad Y. M. C. A. to be owned by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company. The new institution will be located in the Maccabee building, which was formerly the Connellsville Y. M. C. A. The Maccabee lodge, it is understood, will call the home to the railroad company at a price above $45,000 and immediately move out, leaving the building ready for occupation.

The purchase of the Maccabee building for a local institution for railroad men was the idea of railroad officials on the Connellsville division.
The building is well suited for the "Y" purposes, with swimming pool, gymnasium, large auditorium, and many other rooms for lodgers. Officials at Baltimore were interested and several visits have been made here to look over the property. It is understood that the purchase is favored by the railroad heads.

Pictures of the building and plans of each floor were recently taken, and since then other visits have been made here, one early this week.
With 2,500 railroad men in this city and Connellsville the terminal of the Connellsville and Pittsburg divisions, a "Y" institution would be a welcome addition.

The building was purchased in April, 1915, by the Young Men's U. S.
Knights of the Maccabees, who have since then occupied it. The building is somewhat too large for the local unit, however, and the lodge is willing to make the sale. The deal which is being handled entirely through Baltimore, is expected to go through soon.
In event of selling the Maccabees will either build another home or remodel some building. The lodge has two or three sites in view but has not yet definitely decided on any.

'There's a Reason'

NEW OFFENSIVE IS ALL AMERICAN; PERSHING IS IN COMPLETE COMMAND

comparing the glare of light stopped and in sudden silence the Americans went over the top. All along the line could be heard the challenging of German machine guns and then suddenly the thunder commenced again when a barrage was laid down to protect the soldiers as they approached the German trenches.

Into the battle has been brought all the elements of modern warfare. While the artillery was playing its role, the airmen and the tanks worked over their machines preparatory to taking their part in the "big show" the Americans have given.

There was no question of aerial supremacy or should not be. French planes and French airmen accompanied the American forces and daylight saw them already in preparation.

There was a high wind during the day but the balloons were able to remain up for observation. The smoke screen the American gunners placed about Mont Sec appears to have been successful in preventing the enemy's observation from that commanding point.

BRITISH ADVANCE SOUTH OF CAMBRAI
WITH THE BRITISH FORCES IN FRANCE, Sept. 13.—British forces in their advance yesterday in the Harpincourt section southwest of Cambrai penetrated the German positions in some places for a depth of 2,000 yards.

ITALIAN TROOPS PENETRATE AUSTRIAN LINE.
ROME, Sept. 13.—Italian troops have penetrated the Austro-Hungarian position at Pramagore. The Italian war office announced today. An enemy assaulting party on Monte Mesolme was put to flight.

AMERICAN ASSAULT CLAIMS ALL LONDON ATTENTION.
LONDON, Sept. 13.—The assault on the St. Mihiel salient dominates the news columns of the newspapers today which feature it with the brilliant headlines. The opening blow in Marshal Foch's great offensive scheme claims attention in any case, but this one has a special attraction as the first stroke of the independent American army under direct American command and as such is hailed as one of the milestones of the war. That the blow thus far has succeeded so well and brought such a large number of prisoners affords an opportunity for congratulations by the press.

DELIVERS HIS REPORT

John R. Burnworth Hikes Through Rain With Draft Enrollment.

In order to get the registration report from Henry Clay township No. 2, to Local Board for District No. 5, Registrar John R. Burnworth hiked five miles through a thunderstorm last night after the closing of the enrollment office, and delivered the names of the 45 registrants to Ross S. Matthews at Somerset.

The roads from the registration place in Henry Clay No. 2 were made impassable either to horse or automobile by the rains and not wishing to delay the workings of the draft machinery by getting his report in late, Burnworth made the trip on foot.

The returns from Markleysburg, Henry Clay townships Nos. 1 and 2, Wharton townships Nos. 1 and 2, Choptice and Stewart township were also collected by R. S. Matthews. He was accompanied by A. B. Norton, Jr., and G. S. Connell in Mr. Norton's car. In Henry Clay township 45 men registered, just the exact number of registration cards which had been sent to that township.

"I have had stomach trouble for twenty years and for the past year have eaten nothing but stale bread and drunk hot water. Was too weak to do any kind of work. Six weeks ago I took the first dose of May's Wonderful Remedy and am now doing all my housework besides looking after my chickens and milking two cows every day. Mine has been a wonderful recovery." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. A. A. Clarke and druggist everywhere.—Adv.

Moon returned to the mines and insulting Saylor, was struck by him with the open hand. Moon returned to his boarding house and securing a gun shot Saylor.

YOUR FALL INCOME.

Form the Habit of Saving by Having a Bank Account.

Those who reap the largest harvest in the Fall, ought to have the largest bank account. But the man who has had only a moderate degree of success this season should look forward to a larger income next year. This can be brought about by having a bank account which will enable the depositor to provide for the expense of planting time. Take advantage of the present to provide for the future. Elusive Happiness.

We must remember one thing. It is not absolutely necessary to be happy. It is all very well to talk about happiness, but one of the strange contradictions of life is that we can never find happiness, if we search for it. Happiness is elusive. It will escape us, if we seek to hold it. But if we go our way, if we refuse to lose our faith, no matter how weary or how disheartened, we will learn to find happiness in little things, in the reading of a book, in the singing of a song, in the making of a dress, in the doing of our work.

It is the last thing indeed that is the real cure for the disillusionment of life that comes to each of us. Work is the great panacea. If we work, and work well, we shall find much to compensate us. And if along the way we choose to pretend that dreams do sometimes come true, who can blame us?—Exchange.

Woman's Morning Sickness—

POOR WOMAN, she is called upon to suffer and carry MORE than her share of human ills, but the one that seems to be most trying and unfair of all is the sickness that comes to her at the time of life when she should be at her best—when every ounce of her strength should be for the carrying out of that act of Nature that makes her bring a new life into the world.

MANY WOMEN SUFFER—awfully—terribly during this time with a stomach sickness. It is the kind that never can be told in words—the morning sickness of a woman.

Before Baby Comes—

It is one of the most trying tests of human endurance, and all the more so because it is so hard to control.

Few remedies can be depended upon to give more or less temporary relief. So many favorable reports have come to us from those who have used EATONIC during this time that it is with the greatest satisfaction we say to ALL SUFFERERS from this peculiar woman's sickness of the stomach, "DO TRY EATONIC—give it a fair trial, and GET THE HELP we so confidently feel sure you will get."

The results have been so uniformly good—wonderful in many cases—that we say to you, and gladly do we say it, that any poor woman suffering who obtains a package of EATONIC from any druggist in this city or drug stores anywhere and uses it according to the simple directions if it fails to do the good and give the help that it should—all she has to do is to return it to the druggist whom you know and can trust and the money will be cheerfully refunded. Remember it only costs a penny or two a day to use EATONIC.

SO WE SAY—

Do not ever suffer again

HOW A YOUNG GIRL SUFFERED

And Was Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Told By Her Mother.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For three months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I didn't know what to do. I read in the paper about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. Finore, 516 Marcy Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Prominent Georgia Physician Gives Master Medicine Tanlac His Unqualified Endorsement.

Dr. T. J. Edwards, of Fayetteville, Ga., one of the best-known members of the medical profession in the state of Georgia, makes a statement that will undoubtedly produce a profound impression throughout the country. "In my thirty years of active practice as a licensed physician in the state of Georgia," said Dr. Edwards, "I have never seen anything to equal Tanlac as a medicine to produce results. I hear people on all sides telling of the benefits they have derived from its use."

"Tanalac is simply the talk of my town. I have no hesitancy in recommending the medicine; and, as a matter of fact, I am prescribing it for my patients almost every day."

"People in all walks of life in and around our little city are giving endorsements to the medicine. Seldom a day passes that some one does not come to me and say something about the good results they are getting from the use of Tanlac."

"Several unusual gains in weight have been reported by some of our most prominent people, and I have treated some stubborn cases of indigestion, catarrhal conditions, and organic disorders and secured splendid results with Tanlac."

"Tanalac is now sold in Connelville exclusively by the Connelville Drug Co., Baighley's Pharmacy, and F. H. Harmsen, where the premier preparation can be had.—Adv.

REGULATIONS UNDER WHICH NEW COAL MINES CAN NOW BE OPENED

Applications Subject to Investigation to Determine Quality of Coal Produced, Tonnage Output, Etc.

The United States Fuel Administration does not hesitate to grant permission to open new mines when convinced that the new operation will increase production, says an official statement recently issued.

Each application is investigated by the mine track committee, and their decision is governed by the following considerations: Quality of coal; production tonnage promised at an early date; labor supply available without interfering with other operations; diffusion of cars; and ability of railroads to handle the production.

Up to this time there have been 622 applications to open bituminous mines, and 10 applications to open anthracite mines. Of this number, 315 bituminous applications and 9 anthracite applications have been approved. Seventy-two bituminous applications have been rejected, and one has been withdrawn. The mine track committee has under consideration one anthracite and 335 bituminous requests.

So long as the railroads are experiencing difficulty in supplying cars and in moving the loads to their destination and so long as labor for the mines is short the advisability of extending coal development is held by the United States Fuel Administration in a doubtful light. Only when convinced that a new operation will surely increase production is consent given for a new opening.

FRED W. GANS,

Barracks, Paris Island, S. C.SHOULD REVOKE THE RESOLU-TION.Even if the executive committee of the Fayette county chapter of the Red Cross had the power and authority—which we very much doubt—to adopt a resolution draining the treasuries of the local branches and auxiliaries without so much as "by your leave," the manner of "sacking that action" was as indiscreet as it was unwise and unfair.If, as is currently reported, such a resolution was adopted with the proceeds of the Connelville street fair in mind as a healthy addition to the county treasury, and against the protests of the Connelville members of the committee, the proceeding also becomes unjust. Further disregard of the request of the Connelville members of the committee that the effective date of the resolution be advanced beyond the close of the street fair, betrays a disposition to be arbitrary that is not generally expected to be found among men charged with the important duty of administering affairs in which several parties and communities have rights and many individuals an interested concern.
Still further withholding from the branches, the fair workers and the public generally of information relating to the action that had been taken, savors of "sneak" tricks and methods that should have no place in the conduct of the units of a great organization like the American Red Cross.In the expressive language of the street the executive committee of the Fayette county chapter "is in bad" on this proposition from every point of view. The Connelville members, who are in close touch with the sentiment and feeling among Red Cross workers and supporters in this community, were entitled to more consideration than they received relative to their request to extend the effective date of the resolution, even if their well-founded objections to the resolution did not deserve recognition. The executive committee, as a matter of policy alone, should not have denied the branches a voice in deciding the question of turning all funds into the county chapter, even if the county body had such power, which is doubted. But even if such action were within the rights and functions of the executive committee, without first referring the matter to the branches for consideration, there should have been an utmost frankness in promptly informing the branches and the public of what had been done.Because of the unfortunate and impulsive form of procedure the executive committee is being rather sharply criticised and will doubtless be still more vigorously censured if the effort to divert all—causally persued in without first obtaining the assent of the local units. The questions of patriotism or loyalty to the best interests of the Red Cross are not involved. The workers of the county in general, and the Connelville district in particular, have proven these qualities in a superlative degree, in so many ways and

Been more a man and less a king, He'd not have said so cold a thing.
Nine sons to bolster up his pride—And he exclaims: "I'm gratified!"
Were sympathy not wholly dead, A thousand things he might have said.
He might have penned a living line
For each of that unselfish nine.
He might have told her that her sons Should long outlive the thundering guns.
And whispered that the God above Alone deserved such gifts of love.He might have uttered real regret That he had placed her in his debt.
A thousand things he might have told That would have surely comforted Her grieving heart. But no! He took Her precious gifts, unchanged of look.
Unchanged, he was gratified To hear a mother's nine had died.What bit of writing plainer tells That neither love nor mercy dwells Within his heart? What picture grim Could better paint the soul of him?
His own words all his acts condemn:
None but a brute could utter them.
Mother of mine, in vain they died!
Doomed is this king thus "gratified."

POWERFUL PILE REMEDY DISCOVERED

Never Failed to End Most Obstacle Case of Piles in Few Days.
For years it has been proved that so-called external remedies applied to the rectum in the rectum cannot cure piles, and at the best can only give temporary relief. Surgical operations do not remove the cause but only delay the formation.
This wonderful prescription, known as Miro Pile Remedy, is an efficient internal treatment of piles, that even in cases of from 20 to 30 years standing with profuse bleeding have been completely cured in from three to ten days. Think of it! Just a few doses of a carefully balanced prescription and the most persistent case of piles is absorbed, never to return.
Just read what Henry J. Stone of Lorain, Ohio, Fire Department says:
"I had bleeding and protruding piles for three years and tried all kinds of remedies without result, but was thoroughly cured after taking one bottle of Miro."
Frank J. Phillips of Bird Island, Minnesota, says:
"I used half a bottle of Miro. I suffered like a chronic case for years with bleeding and protruding piles. I never regretted the money for such bleeding as I am now enjoying. I would have used the whole bottle but it was not necessary." All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice.
Send its worth the little trouble to obtain it to be rid of piles forever.
IMPORTANT: What is known as Miro Pile Remedy is not only the true cause of the cure, but it is the complete cure. For this condition Miro Pile Remedy has been proved as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription.

WELL KNOWN M'KEES ROCKS MAN HAD BEEN A GREAT SUFFERER

W. Price, Well Known Painter and Decorator, Was Relieved By Ten-Herbs.

DID THE WORK IN HIS CASE.

No new article of the times has created such profound interest, especially in the larger cities, as has the introduction of Ten-Herbs, the famous stomach remedy. People in all walks of life have been attracted to it: the statesman, the professional man, mechanic, financier, brakeman, society woman, waitress—they all have tested it and permitted the use of their names in telling of it.
Every day people are coming forward with unqualified statements as to the great benefit they have received from the use of Ten-Herbs.

Recently, the following testimonial was given by Mr. W. Price, one of the best known painters and decorators in McKees Rocks, who resides at No.
500 Chartiers avenue and has a wife acquaintance in that city. He said:
"For several years past I have been troubled with my stomach; I was battered with gas, could not digest my food and my limbs were stiff and sore; my liver was sluggish and I felt drowsy and sleepy during the day, but could not sleep at night. I was very nervous and felt completely run down. I was told I had catarrh of the stomach and needed something to build me up. I tried a number of different medicines but never got anything to relieve me until I began to take your Ten-Herbs. Now I am improved in every way; I sleep well and have a fine appetite. I am glad to endorse Ten-Herbs."

Ten-Herbs cleanses, strengthens and revitalizes the whole system. It clears the blood of poisons and impurities, puts the lazy liver to work, regulates the bowels, tones up the digestive organs and strengthens the kidneys.
Ten-Herbs is sold in Connelville at the Connelville Drug Co.'s Store.

"UNDER THE YOKER"—A William seen in the role of a sweet and char-the American occupation. Miss Bara plays the part of the beautiful daughter of a wealthy Spanish grudge who has settled in the Philippines. In love with an American army captain, the girl scorns the attentions of a Spanish friend of her father's, who in revenge, foment a revolt and makes the girl a captive. The American officer is also captured, and is about to be put to death when American soldiers wound the hand and rescue the prisoner.

Hundreds of persons were used to recreate some of the stirring war scenes that took place in and about Manila during the early days of the American occupation, and the most painstaking study was necessary to duplicate the tropical setting in which years ago American fighting men carried the flag of the United States into

PETEY DINK—A Tank Couldn't Do Much More to Pete

By C. A. VOIGHT

WORKERS OF COKE REGION MAKE ANOTHER FINE HOLIDAY RECORD

Did Relatively Much Better on Labor Day Than on July Fourth.

TONNAGE ALMOST AS BIG

With 2,800 Fewer Ovens Than Were Operating During First Week of July; Aggregate Production Shows Further Gain; Proof of Patriotism.

From The Weekly Courier.

Although the tonnage of coke produced during Labor Day week was 4,500 tons less than was produced during the week of July Fourth, the industrial soldiers of the Connellsville region did relatively better on the most recent than they did on the earlier holiday. The estimated output last week was 345,210 tons as compared with 348,835 tons during the week of July 4. To understand how much better was the record made last week than during the first week of July, it must be borne in mind that last week's production came from 30,187 ovens instead of from 33,017, which was the number in blast with the advent of July. The difference, 2,830, in the number of active ovens in the week under comparison would under normal conditions have produced 35,000 tons of coke, hence the results attained last week were even more noteworthy than those attained during Independence week, as that record was 345,210 tons of coke last week, it also included and shipped 202,700 tons of raw coal. These totals represent a gain of 6,960 tons in coke production and a loss of 8,200 tons in coal production. This is an apparent net decrease in total tonnage but when the coke tonnage is reduced to a coal basis, and added to the coal shipped in its raw state, the aggregate becomes 721,515 tons. Compared with the aggregate, 719,375 tons, of the preceding week, there was an actual net gain of 2,140 tons in the region's contribution to the nation's available fuel supply last week.

To men who have observantly followed the progress of the efforts and measures that have been employed to bring the needs of the war situation home to the individual workers of the region, the results accomplished during Labor Day week are not surprising. They are confirmatory, rather, of the belief that has all the while been held that all the workers of the Connellsville region need is to have a real sense of the importance they, as individual citizens of the republic, have in the scheme of war preparation; and they will respond willingly to any reasonable appeal. This was proven on Independence Day and again, and even more abundantly, on Labor Day. The coke worker has his heart in the right place, and it can be reached if the proper methods are employed. What has happened, and what is happening from week to week, demonstrates most conclusively that the Fuel Administration representatives, plant managers and others, who have upon them the responsibility of meeting the fuel situation, have found and are deftly employing a sort of an open sesame to the hearts of the workers. This is nothing more or less than the simple appeal to the same motives in the coke workers that need to be stimulated in the average citizen as a means to induce him to action.

There was some loss in production and considerable inconvenience to operation at several of the smaller plants last week on account of interrupted car supply. This was local rather than general and is attributed, in some cases, to the delays arising from the frequent shifting of cars that were being loaded with coke screenings on sidings over which empty and loaded coke cars must be moved to and from the yards.

With the exception of those directly interested in the industry, the region will generally welcome the order of Fuel Administrator Garfield discontinuing the loading of coke screenings at best it has been re-

COKE TRADE SUMMARY.

The workers of the Connellsville region put up another fine holiday week record last week. Having struck a "win-the-war" gait on Independence Day, they responded to the appeal to allow no decrease in production to occur on Labor Day.

While the tonnage of coke produced last week was somewhat less than that produced during the first week of July, it came from 2,830 fewer ovens than were in blast with the advent of the mid-summer which makes the performance of last week relatively very much better than the record of Independence week. Magnificent as that record was, the coke tonnage gained 8,960 tons under the stimulus of an effort to make a good showing despite the holiday, the total for the week being 345,210 tons. Raw coal was mined in addition to the amount of 202,700 tons, a loss of 8,200 tons. This indicates a net loss for the week but when the coke is reduced to its coal equivalent the aggregate becomes 721,515, or 2,140 tons greater than the corresponding total for the preceding week. Thus it is shown that the region is gradually moving ahead to a heavier week to week production.

The results of Labor Day week, just like the results of Independence week, but in larger proportion, indicate that the wise policy of the agencies at work to boost coal production is proving its efficiency, which is another way of saying that the men are more generally learning the proper and important relation to the war program.

garded as an emergency measure and cannot be said to have proven satisfactory either to the shipper or the consumer. The preparation of this material for market is beset with so many difficulties that it has not been found possible to overcome them all. The most serious objection to the trade has been that it utilizes men wholly out of proportion to the tonnage produced. It is believed that if the men thus employed were engaged in mining, or loading coal behind mining machines, the output per man per day would be several times that represented by a day's work in loading screenings. This and the frequent interruptions to car service resulting from placing and shifting cars for screenings constitute the chief objections to the industry, and they seem to have had weight with the Fuel Administration in arriving at the decision to discontinue it.

Estimated production of coke for the week ending Saturday, September 7, was 345,210 tons divided between the districts in the following proportions: Connellsville, 170,845 tons; Lower Connellsville, 174,365 tons.

BIG INCREASE IN OUTPUT OF LIMESTONE FOR USE AS FURNACE FLUX IN 1917

Tonnage Increased Seven and Value 35 Per Cent Over the Records of the Preceding Year.

The production of limestone used for flux in the United States greatly surpassed even the record production of 1916, showing an increase of 1,744,920 long tons, or seven per cent, in quantity and of $4,561,103 in value. These increases followed increases of 24 per cent in quantity and 44 per cent in value in 1916, and of 24 per cent in quantity and 23 per cent in value in 1915. The average price in 1917 was 73 cents a long ton, compared with 50 cents in 1916, and 51 cents in 1915.

Production in 1916 was reported from 33 states; in 1917 from 34 states. Nevada, reporting production for the first time. In 1917, as in 1916, five states produced more than 1,000,000 long tons, Alabama rising above that figure and Illinois falling below. Five states exceeded $1,000,000 in 1917, whereas only three exceeded that value in 1916.

Of 22 states, nine showed decrease in quantity but only three showed decrease in value. The nine states whose quantity decreased included Pennsylvania and New York in the east, Wisconsin, Illinois and Kentucky in the central region, and Colorado, Montana, Utah, and California in the west. Pennsylvania fell below the 10,000,000-ton mark, which it passed in 1916, but its output was still more than double that of the second state, Ohio, and nearly three times that of the third state, Michigan. The combined increase in quantity for Ohio and Michigan was nearly four times the combined decrease in Pennsylvania and New York. New York's output had also decreased in 1916. The three central states, Wisconsin, Illinois and Kentucky, though showing a decrease in production in 1917, were still far ahead of 1915. Only a small part of their decrease in 1917 was offset by gains in adjacent states, but their total loss was less than 10 per cent of the gains of Ohio and Michigan, which can supply the same markets in the Great Lake region. The combined decrease of the four western states mentioned was nearly double the gain made by other western states, and the loss of Montana alone (208,510 long tons) was more than 50 per cent greater than this gain.

IMPORTANT EVENTS IN THE LIFE OF GENERAL PERSHING

JOHN J. PERSHING was born September 13, 1860, in Laclede, Mo. In 1877 he taught the negro school in Laclede. Graduated with honors from the State Normal at Kirksville, Mo., in 1880. Taught school at Prairie Mound, Mo., until 1882. He won the appointment to West Point in a competitive examination July 14, 1882.

Graduated from West Point in 1886 as Second Lieutenant. Assigned to Sixth Cavalry in the Apaches campaign. Promoted to First Lieutenant in 1891. At the outbreak of Spanish-American War, assigned to the Tenth Cavalry. Won distinction at the battle of San Juan. Ordered to Philippines as Captain and Adjutant General, District of Mindanao, in 1897.

On General Staff in 1904, he met and won Miss Frances K. Warren, daughter of Senator Warren, of Wyoming. They were married in January, 1905, and left for Japan the same day, where Pershing was Military Attaché and Observer in the Russo-Japanese War. In 1906 promoted to be Brigadier General over the heads of 862 officers. In command of the Department of Mindanao he firmly established American authority in the Philippines.

In 1914 he was given command of Fort Bliss on the Mexican border. In August, 1915, his home in the Presidio, San Francisco, burned and his wife and three children perished in the flames. In March, 1916, he was sent into Mexico in command of the Punitive Expedition against Villa.

He was given command of the American Expeditionary Forces in France by President Wilson on May 21, 1917, sailed on May 28. He was promoted to be General in American Army October 4, 1917. March 29, 1918, while the great German drive was in progress, General Pershing was able to offer General Foch the entire resources of America to stem the tide.

All of these great events in the life of this remarkable commander are vividly pictured in the thrilling scenes of William Fox's newest photo production, "Why America Will Win."

TRIBUTE FROM A GREAT MAN OF PERSHING'S HOME STATE.

My dear Mr. Editor:—

I think you are doing a fine thing to celebrate General Pershing's 58th birthday. He thoroughly deserves it and is measuring up splendidly to the high place he holds. He is making a great name for himself. The American people are very proud of him, especially the people in Missouri, where he was born and raised. They have absolute confidence in him. They think he is a dependable man—a quality which he has demonstrated many times.

Yours friend,

DEVELOPMENT OF NEW COAL MINES TO RECEIVE ATTENTION OF NEW BODY

War Industries Board Creates a Division for the Purpose of Speeding War Program.

Organization of a new division of the War Industries Board, known as the facilities division, to handle the work of speeding up the industrial activities of the country to meet the war demands, and supply the essential needs of the civilian population through the creation of new facilities, has been announced. The new division will work in conjunction with the resources and conversion section which is engaged in converting existing industries into war activities. The organization of the new division is a forward step toward the promulgation of a far-reaching and comprehensive policy in the matter of industrial control, conversion and curtailment.

Coal and its distribution will be affected by the new section only in so far as it is restricted by the operation of newly created industries and facilities. One of the problems which the division is expected to take up, and probably in cooperation with the Fuel Administration, is that of the opening of new coal mines to supply fuel for the conduct of the war. The Fuel Administration has not undertaken work of this kind because of the limited railroad facilities as present.

The expansion of existing coal mines will also be considered by the division. Action in the matter, however, will be taken only after ample attention has been given to economic questions, such as capital, available labor and housing accommodations, location, transportation and safety.

and character and probable capacity of the mine.

LITTLE ATTENTIONS FROM FOLKS AT HOME WHAT THE BOYS LIKE

Says Sergeant Fretts in a Letter Written on Paper Taken From a German Soldier on Battlefield.

The little acts or attentions which the people at home give the boys at the front are among the things that brighten the corners where duty has called them. This has apt illustration in the case of Sergeant Charles D. Fretts and his brother, Private William H. Fretts, of Company D, 110th Infantry. Both are on the Honor Roll of the Christian church and like all those whose names are on this list they are recipients at intervals of letters from the Honor Roll Department, which has been organized by Rev. Buckner and the Christian Endeavor Society of the church.

In a letter received by Mrs. D. D. Fretts yesterday Sergeant Fretts gives expression to the satisfaction the boys derive from such attention. "I appreciate it very highly," he writes. "I am so glad they thought of us. It certainly makes us feel much better to know that they are so willing to help us, but they are too far away to be of any assistance except through their prayers. If we are ever able to get back we will be among them. They are doing a great work toward comforting the men when on the battle lines."

"We are on the line and hard at it. I cannot describe it nor will I try. Words alone are not sufficient. It is nothing but a man-killing game. We are all right, no wounds and are feeling as fine as any. We both made a successful trip over the top. We have both done our bit. Of course others showed better than we. Rest assured if you knew what we have done you would be proud of us. Our company made the record of the division and the division, the record of the troops in France to this date."

In another joint letter dated August 2 the Fretts boys speak of having been "in a wonderful battle when the company made the finest kind of a reputation, being mentioned for honors."

"Bill showed wonderful nerve, doing as well as any. We passed each other going into action and our exchanges of smiles told all to each other."

The paper upon which the letter was written was taken from a German by Sergeant Fretts. "I brought it out of the battle," he writes. "I was not wounded but many pieces of shrapnel and high explosive shells hit me."

Private Eugene Fretts, the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Fretts in the service, is a member of Company C, 126th Machine Gun Battalion. When writing, on August 5, his command was "watching the Germans very carefully. I can look out of the Y. M. C. A. window," he says, "and watch the canons shooting across the lines. We do not worry about anything over here because things happen so regularly that we are getting used to them. The interesting things are airplane fights and artillery duels."

"By the way things look to me I think we will be home to eat Christmas dinner together."

Private Fretts finds novelty in the arrangements of French country homes where "you can walk out of the kitchen door into the barn, chicken coop or cow shed. We sleep in the mows of the barns with plenty of straw for beds. The only thing I don't like about the country is that it rains about half the time."

HUN BARBARISM IN AFRICAN COLONIES SHOWN BY BRITISH

Report Containing Evidence of Brutality Is Made Public by England.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 13.—A report containing evidence of the brutal methods employed by Germany in the administration of her colonies in Africa made public yesterday by Edmund H. L. Dore, acting secretary of the Interior of South Africa, constitutes the British government's reply to Dr. W. S. Self, the German secretary of state for the colonies, that Germany would demand the return of her colonies at the peace conference.

The report shows that the first 25 years of German rule in Southwest Africa was an unbroken record of official bad faith, private depression, cruelty, barbarity and robbery, culminating in the Herero and Hottentot rebellions. During the last 17 years there was no law for the natives. These were some of the things which goaded the natives into rebellion. The Hereros were reduced from 80,000 to 15,000; the Hottentots from 20,000 to 9,000 and the Bergdama from 30,000 to 12,800. How it was done was by Arab rebellion by a wholesale massacre. Governor Trossa issued "extermination order."

"Kill every one of them, take no prisoners," he said in the order. Evidence that the order was only too faithfully carried out is recorded in a story of Governor Trossa's former groom who describes how he once was ordered to kill a young Herero woman. He refused in disgust whereupon a German soldier showed him how to do it and then he held the dripping bayonet in his face. An officer and German soldiers were standing around but none interfered in behalf of the woman. Even after the rebellion surviving natives fared but little better.

Graham Preferred War Work.
Mike Finn arranged for First Baseman Dawson Graham of the Detroit Tigers to get a trial with the Detroit Tigers, but he chose war work at Nashville instead.

New Modes as Shown Here

MEYERSDALE UNFURLS FLAG WITH 229 STARS TO BOYS IN SERVICE

Four Gold Stars Are Placed on Banner in Honor of Soldier Dead.

Special to The Courier.

MEYERSDALE, Sept. 13.—Fully 3,000 people turned out Tuesday evening to witness the dedication and raising of the community service flag, which was held on lower Main street, the flag being raised diagonally across Main and Center streets. A temporary platform was erected for the band and speakers, and the Mothers' Association. George W. Collins presided at the meeting.

The first number on the program was music by the band, followed by prayer by Rev. Dr. A. E. Truxal; flag raising while singing "America." The flag was drawn up by four mothers who have lost their sons during the war. The chairman then called upon Sergeant George Foy, who gave an excellent talk, telling about the battle of July 15 in which he took part and many other experiences which he has had.

Frank T. Bocher of the Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburg, was then introduced and gave a most excellent patriotic address. This was followed by a vocal solo by E. C. Hostetler, "The Star Spangled Banner" by the band and audience; benediction, Rev. Father Brady.

The chairman then announced that Sergeant Foy would be glad to speak to every mother of a soldier boy and he left the platform to meet the mothers. To some he gave messages and encouraging news from their sons, many of whom were in the battle with Sergeant Foy.

The flag dedicated was made by the Soldier Mothers and is a beautiful piece of work. It contains 224 blue stars and four gold ones, representing John Tressler, Edward Keller, Irwin Beal and John Swindell. Tressler, Keller and Beal lost their lives in the battle of July 15, while the latter was honorably discharged from Camp Lee on account of ill health and died at his home here a few months ago.

One red star represents Miss Morgan, a trained nurse in France. A collection amounting to more than $100 was taken, to be given to the Soldier Mothers' Association.
